MISCELLANEOUS READING.

A most painful scene occurred at Hertford, on Tuesday, the 18th. Toward the close of the proceedings of the Hertfordshire election, just atter Sir Edward had delivered his address with a fervent tribute of admiration to the womanly beauty exhibited in the long line of open carriages, chaises and vans drawn up in front of the bustings, there was an unwonted stir in the crowd, which parted to admit of the passage of a bired brougham from one of the town inns. The carriage having stopped, two ladies alighted, one of them an extremely handsome woman of about forty-five years of age, with fresh complexion, and with eyes of dazzling beauty .-The lady, who was evidently laboring under excitement which exercised all her powers to control, advanced as nearly as she could through the crowd toward the hustings, and appounced berself as the wife of the Right Hon. Sir E. B. Lytton, stating that she had come according to a promise made by her to confront her husband, and to expose the wrongs which she said he had inflicted upon her, and which she had described in her works and in a pamphlet published by her. The appearance of the lady was not unexpected, as her coming had been announced in bills and placards; but owing to a decep-Powder; Teeth, Nail, and Hair Brushes; Buffalo tion which had been practised upon her by some persons in the town, who had introduced themselves to her, she was detained in the town while the election was proceeding in the vicinity. Those in the secret auticipated that she would not discover the mistake until the election was over, and that her design would be thus frustrated. It was nearly so. Recognized as soon as observed, her voice was nearly drowned by the shouts of Sir Edward's supporters, but Sir Edward's eye caught hers, and his face paled. He looked like a man suddenly attacked by paralysis. Those near him say he trembled exceedingly. For a few moments he retained his position in front of the hustings, but turned his back on the unwelcome visitor .-Then he suddenly disappeared below the HENRY'S MAGNESIA; Husband's do.; Murry's Fluid do.; Citrate do.; Ellis's usual declaration, escaped into the residence of the gentleman on whose grounds the election took place. Lady Lytton continued to No. 165, King st, cor of Wash. address the audience assembled for more SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS.—We have on than a quarter of an hour, repeating ber statements in the pamphlet, and asserting struments, to which the attention of Surgeons | her intention to confront her husband on ev ery possible occasion until she compelled him to redress her wrongs. Her ladyship subsequently made an application to the Mayor for the use of the town ball, for the purpose of making a public statement; but this being retused her, she left the town early in the siternoon. Lady Lytton arrived at Hertford at 3 o'clock on the morning of the election, having posted from Taunton, where she resides. It is needless to say that the event described has caused the greatest possible excitement at Hertfordsbire.
